Budget Initiatives and Priorities

At the previous two board meetings trustees received information on various initiatives that are currently operating in Wolf Creek Public Schools. Superintendent Jacobs lead trustees through an exercise to prioritize the various initiatives from a board perspective. Information from this exercise will be utilized by the superintendency in evaluating budget priorities for the next school year. The superintendency team will be meeting to discuss the input and new initiatives at their planning retreat February 11 and 12.

Salary and Wage Review Committee

On February 1, 2016 trustees met as the Salary and Wage Review Committee. The purpose of this committee is to establish the employment terms and conditions for Wolf Creek Public Schools support staff. Various proposals were considered by the committee. Recommendations were made to the Board for alterations in the employment conditions. Recommendations were considered at the February 4, 2016 regular board meeting.
